come back new® with majestic princess℠

Our newest ship, Majestic Princess℠, is ready to set sail in the South Pacific. Offering the same beloved ambiance as her sister ships, Royal Princess® and Regal Princess®, this 3,560-passenger vessel boasts a brand-new livery design on her bow, as well as unique features not found on any other Princess ship, including two new specialty restaurants with dinner menus crafted by two Michelin-star awarded chefs.

ACTIVITIES ABOUND
After browsing the 12,000-square-foot shopping space or rolling the dice in the Vegas-style casino, take time for a massage at Lotus Spa®. Serenity abounds at the Hollywood Conservatory, where you can wander through the indoor garden, enjoy live music and play a game of chess using supersized pieces. Don’t miss a stroll on the SeaWalk®, a glass-encased walkway extending 28 feet beyond the edge of the ship over the sparkling sea below.

ENDLESS ENTERTAINMENT
Watch the top deck alight with a dazzling display in the Princess® WaterColor Fantasy as colorful dancing fountains shoot up 33 feet in the air. After dark, head to Hollywood Pool Club to dance under twinkling stars at the glass-domed pool. Endless entertainment at the Vista Gaming Lounge stars world-class comedians, illusionists, and musicians.

CULINARY DELIGHTS
Fine dining is the crowning jewel aboard Majestic Princess℠: exquisite French cuisine at La Mer — A French Bistro by Emmanuel Renault, a three-Michelin star chef — and elevated Cantonese at Harmony, helmed by Michelin-starred chef Richard Chen. Dinner in a private cellar is paired with pours selected by expert winemakers, while the Chef’s Table Lumiere invites guests to an exclusive meal. For more casual bites, devour wok-fried dishes at Chopsticks Noodle bar and classic dumplings at Lobster & Dim Sum Bar.
